

EVANGELINE K. PARKER

(Abbreviated Biography)

She has been described as a dynamic motivational speaker and an energetic and soul stirring entertainer. She is an award winning television personality, community servant and radio personality. She is Evangeline Parker!

Evangeline is the public affairs coordinator for Comcast Cable of Arkansas and host of the award winning Comcast Newsmakers community news television program. Also, she is a member of the number one Arkansas morning show “Broadway Joe Morning Show” on Power 92.3 FM. She is affectionately known to radio listeners as Ms. Parker. Listeners have described her as inspirational, comedic and a savvy conversationalist as she delivers the entertainment news and co-produces the “Power People Poll” segment.

Evangeline is the founder and executive director of the Miss Teen Promise Female Preparatory & Scholarship program. Over the past 14 years, the non-profit organization has provided life skills training to over 250 Arkansas females between the age of 6 and 18 and awarded them more than $70,000 in scholarships and prizes. Teen Promise programs have expanded to provide leadership training and scholarships to females between the age of 19 and 35. Teen Promise programs have assisted females in developing the promise within to become more positive, poised, professional, productive, and polished young ladies. Teen Promise ladies are award winning teachers, academic achievers, entrepreneurs and successful women and leaders within their communities.

Evangeline is skilled in communicating with people in a variety of roles from corporate CEO’s to teachers and their students. She has spent over 25 years of her life delivering motivational speeches to corporate groups, schools, colleges/universities and religious institutions.

Evangeline has a Master of Science degree in Mass Communications- emphasis area Television Broadcasting, from Arkansas State University at Jonesboro. She has a Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science from the University of Arkansas at Monticello. Also, she is the recipient of the “University of Arkansas at Monticello Alumni Award of Achievement and Merit.”

A woman with a heart for service, November 2010, Evangeline was selected as the “Outstanding Person” by the Stand Newspaper; October 2010, the Teen Promise Female Preparatory & Scholarship program received special recognition from the Arkansas Black Hall of Fame Foundation; July 2008, Evangeline was awarded a KARK Channel 4 Community Service Award for her community service work with her Teen Promise Female Preparatory & Scholarship program. April 2008, Evangeline was selected the KATV-Channel 7 “Arkansan of the Week.” October 2007, Evangeline was selected the KARK Channel 4 Volunteer of the Month.

Evangeline is a member of St. Mark Baptist Church in Little Rock, Arkansas. She serves her church as a Sunday school teacher for the Master Life Sunday School program.

Evangeline’s mission in life is to be a vessel for Christ spreading the word of God in word and song!

For more information about Evangeline visit: www.evangelineparker.com or www.missteeppromise.com