

Evangeline Parker

She has been described as a dynamic motivational speaker and an energetic and soul stirring vocalist.

Her anointed voice has led her to speak and sing around the world to inspire and share the gospel. From Bobby Jones Gospel to opening for internationally known Gospel recording artists Karen Clark-Sheard, Lee Williams & the Spiritual QC's to opening for Academy Award Winning Actress, Mary Steenburgen to being the headliner for the past five Miss U.S. Virgin Islands Pageants and a featured vocalist for numerous Miss Arkansas pageants.

Several years ago, Evangeline realized one of her dreams, when she drew a standing ovation from New York's world famous Apollo Theater audience. From Hawaii, to New Mexico to Barbados, West Indies and throughout Arkansas Evangeline Parker's powerful and anointed vocal gift and music is touching the lives of the young and the young at heart.

June 2008, Angel K! Entertainment Inc. released her Gospel CD entitled, "Conversations with God." A musical compilation that features conversations Evangeline has had with God over a five year period. Her "Conversations with God" promotional tour is receiving amazing audience reviews because her songs speak to various life situations.

Audiences say her songs "Pray In Faith," "I Can Feel You Moving," "I Feel Glory" offer a fresh, clean and pure sound that fills your spirit with praise and cause you to clap your hands, sway back and forth and connect to a power source bigger than your problem and leads you to a positive mindset that I can make it through whatever comes my way."

Her songs are being enjoyed by a diverse group of people from little children to senior adults who thirst for a powerful word from God.

Evangeline's mission in life is to be a vessel for Christ spreading the word of God in word and song!
